Part of the Mass Description
A. We pray for the needs of the Church and the world (also called the Prayer of the Faithful).
B. The bread and wine are brought to the altar, and contributions to the church and for the poor are collected from those assembled.
C. A song that is sung in response to the first reading.
D. After the Gospel reading, the priest or deacon gives a teaching about the Scriptures and encouragement to the people to put God's word into practice.
E. Opening prayer
F. This prayer, spoken or sung by the people during the Eucharistic Prayer, is a remembrance of Jesus' death, Resurrection, and promise of his return.
G. The summit of the celebration -- with the words of consecration Christ becomes sacramentally present under the appearances of bread and wine.
H. This is from one of the New Testament epistles.
I. Hymn/Song of praise to God
J. Part of the Concluding Rites that precedes the Dismissal
K. This section of the Mass includes the Preparation of the Gifts, the Lord's Prayer, the Fraction Rite, and Communion.
L. We say the words of the Nicene Creed, which begins, "I believe in one God."
M. The priest begins this with the words, "Lord Jesus Christ, you said to your apostles: I leave you peace, my peace I give to you."
N. This follows the "Glory to God" prayer and includes readings from the Scripture.
O. When we receive the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ.
P. This comes from the Old Testament, the Acts of the Apostles, or Revelation.
Q. The people gather, and the priest, ministers and altar servers move toward the altar. This time is often celebrated with a song.
R. The "breaking of the bread" as the congregation sings or recites the "Lamb of God"
S. The assembly offers a prayer to confess our sins and ask the Lord's mercy.
T. The priest begins the Mass by leading us – "In the name of the Father..."
